IVI News Updates

IVI Spring Summit 2015 Review

Delivering Business Performance through Capability Management

IVI was delighted to hold its recent Spring Summit in New York which was kindly hosted by BNY Mellon in its Manhattan offices. The event explored "Delivering Business Performance through Capability Management" and included speakers and panelists from organizations such as TAC International, Intel, BNY Mellon, The Boston Consulting Group, SQS, DTCC and EY. ### Grand Coalition for Digital Jobs

IVI is part of the Grand Coalition for Digital Jobs, a European Commission funded campaign, to address the ICT skills gap in Europe through taking action in the following key areas: ICT & Training, Mobility, Certification, Awareness Raising and New Forms of ICT Education. We have produced a booklet describing the value of this campaign for the full range of stakeholders and explaining how people can get involved. For more information email clare.thornley@nuim.ie and to download the booklet click here

New MSc in IT Enabled Innovation

Maynooth University and the IVI are launching a new Masters programme in IT-Enabled Innovation. The course will start in September 2015. The new course will include topics such as IT Governance, Performance and Risk, Digital Enablement and Digital Leadership. The course will familiarise students with the IT-CMF and help develop their capacity to lead IT both as a function and as a key transformational force within an organisational context.

IVI Member-Engaged White Paper and Executive Briefing Writing Initiative

Over the past three years, IVI has written, and published on the IVI website approximately 40 IVI Executive Briefings and White Papers, focused on topics central to the effective management of IT for business value. These publications have been authored by both IVI researchers, and industry partners. We now seek to even further expand on this Professional Publication writing initiative, through greater engagement with our Member ecosystem. For further details please click here
