The 4th International Digital Health Symposium at UNGA79 in New York City

24-26th September, 2024, New York, USA

The in-person attendance of this event is by invite only.

The Innovation Value Institute and Digital Health Ecosystem associates invite you to attend the 4th Digital Health Symposium at the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA 79), taking place on September 24-26th 2024 in New York City.

On the 24-25th it will be held at Northwell Health, UJA Conference Centre, 130 East 59th Street, New York, 10022, USA.

On the 26th it will be held at Fordham University's Lincoln Center Campus, McNally Amphitheatre, 140 West 62 Street, New York, NY, 10023, first floor, where a forum on advancing AI in Healthcare will be jointly hosted by Fordham's Gabelli School of Business, Global Healthcare Innovation Management Center and Maynooth University.

You are invited as a thought, clinical, practice, political or patient leader to attend, co-create and speak at the Symposium. The format of the conference consists of TED style stimulus keynotes, panels and working sessions. The symposium is designed to enable discourse, co-design, reflection, and exchange of ideas, concepts, policy, and practice to inform innovative action and build the relationships, trust and shared vision and values to

We look forward to seeing you in New York in September 2024.

Dr. Tadhg MacIntyre from IVI Joined the Climate Ambassador Podcast talking about Urban Nature for Health

Dr. Tadhg MacIntyre, Professor of Environmental Psychology at Maynooth University, talks to Daithí about the science behind how people relate to their environments, the relationship between human health and environmental health, and the fascinating ways in which this is influencing the design of our cities. It also has huge implications for achieving behaviour change for sustainability - the evidence shows that the more we are connected to an environment, the more we take action to protect it! They also touch on the fascinating area of "virtual nature", and how this may be deployed to support local environmental initiatives in the future.

Final event of the H2020 project GoGreenRoutes in Brussels

On 2-3rd July, BluePoint in Brussels was the host venue for a two-day final event of the H2020 project GoGreenRoutes. As this EU Horizon 2020 project begins to wrap up, Brussels, the EU capital, was the apt location for this final event. Sister projects working with nature-based solutions and human health also contributed. They included VARCITIES, euPOLIS, and IN-HABIT, who highlighted their innovations from the past four years working alongside with GoGreenRoutes. The final event was both a chance to showcase all the effort projects put in however, it was also a time for the celebration of nature in a broader sense. Read more.
