

GoGreen Trails at the IVI SUMMIT

Join our 1 km guided nature exploration of Maynooth's Green Campus!

Friday, June 12th,
8:00 - 8:45
TSI Building
Entrance, North
Campus, Maynooth
University

What to expect

Get some gentle exercise with conference attendees, listen to natural landscapes and learn about local flora and fauna

All IVI Summit guests invited. Don't forget your sun cream and/or umbrella!

For further information contact:
Sara Lynch | Sara.lynch@mu.ie

About GoGreen Next

GoGreenNext is a €6 million Horizon Europe research project led by Maynooth University at the IVI Research Centre. It aims to future-proof urban health across Europe and North America by integrating nature-based solutions with evidence-based climate and health policies.

The project studies how ecosystem health, human health, and climate change are interconnected. It develops tools for policymakers to combat challenges like urban heat islands and air pollution while promoting citizen-led advocacy.